

Pages to read: 494-495

Facts and Details

Focus: Why hasn't the Brown family told everyone Encyclopedia is an amazing crime-solver?

Respond:

Handwriting lines for response.

Pages to read: 496-497

Inferring Plot

Focus: What is the main problem in the story?

Respond:

Handwriting lines for response.

Pages to read: 496-497

Summarize

Focus: What has Chief Brown already done to try to solve the problem?

Respond:

Handwriting lines for response.

Pages to read: 498-499

Compare and Contrast

Focus: By the end of page 499, how are Encyclopedia's and Chief Brown's feelings about the case same and different?

Respond:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Pages to read: 499

Questioning the Author

Focus: Why does Encyclopedia Brown say "if he's a lizard expert, I'm the Queen of England!" instead of just "he's not a lizard expert?"

Respond:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Encyclopedia Brown and the Case of the Slippery Salamander

By

Donald J. Sobol

Unit 4 Week 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

