Dear Jack

How have you been. It sure is dull in school since you moved. We all miss your silly jokes, your funny stories, and your great snacks. At lunch I had to eat my own apple for a snack. It was so much better when I could trade my apple for your mom's yummy fruit tarts.

Wait till you hear about a funny story we read in school today. The story was "The Horned Toad Prince." The main character was Reba Jo. She lost her cowboy hat. She met a toad who helped her get it back. The funniest part of the story was when the toad demanded that Reba Jo give him a kiss. I could imagine you reading that part. I just know the whole class would have cracked up!

Well I sure hope we get together soon. Mom said to invite you to come for an overnight stay. You could come on Saturday. Stay till Sunday. Do you think you could come next weekend? It might snow. We could go sledding.

I can't wait to get together again.

Your friend
Jill
